Wisdom is not knowledge, but knowledge enhances wisdom.

Think about it this way: you might be the expert in your field – but that doesn't automatically make you a competent leader. There's a clear difference between knowledge and wisdom. When it comes to passing on the leadership torch to the next generation, understanding the difference is key.

Take a look at the life of Moses, one of the greatest leaders of all time. Even Moses had his flaws. As a result of his sin, Moses would not be allowed to reach the Promised Land. So, the Israelites needed a new leader: meet Joshua. This young man was described as being "filled with the Spirit of wisdom" (Deut. 34:9). In other words, the Spirit of the Lord gave him great wisdom to step into this role.

Ok, but how do we make sure that as we acquire knowledge, we're also growing in wisdom? The answer is to walk with God and stay in His Word. I like how The Message translates Proverbs 8:32-36 (emphasis mine):

"So, my dear friends, listen carefully; those who embrace these my ways are most blessed. Mark a life of discipline and live wisely; don't squander your precious life. Blessed the man, blessed the woman, who listens to me, awake and ready for me each morning, alert and responsive as I start my day's work. When you find me, you find life, real life, to say nothing of God's good pleasure. But if you wrong me, you damage your very soul; When you reject me, you're flirting with death."

So whether you're a seasoned leader like Moses, or a young Joshua learning to lead, there's always more to learn as we walk with God. Do as the Psalmist says: listen, pay attention, be ready – and walk with God in order to walk in wisdom.

Prayer: O Lord, give me wisdom to teach and preach your saving truth today and every day. Amen

Hot Lunch: Hot Lunch from Vondraks THIS THURSDAY, April 11, 2018- Thanks Vondraks. Hot Lunch from Wheelers is April 16th.

School Information

Singing in church: Our next singing opportunity will be Sunday, April 14, 2019. Please meet in Miss Smith's room after Sunday School and Bible Study.

Bel-Air Visit: Our next Bel Air visit is this Tuesday, April 9.

Fruit of the Spirit: April's Fruits of the Spirit is Peace.

Book Order: Our next book order is due Thursday, April 11. The last one of the year will be due by the end of April to make sure we are able to fix any errors or mistakes.

Community Clean Up: We will be doing our community clean up on Thursday, April 18th from 10:00-11:45am. We are moving up the clean up date, because it is closer to Earth Day and we can hopefully get some things cleaned up before the grass gets too tall. Please have your child dress in clothes that they can easily move in and get dirty as we work.

Box Tops for Education: Keep clipping those Box Tops! Each little box makes a big difference! Many labels are already on some of the products you are using. Please clip them and bring them in, they help out our school.

Monthly Calendar: The calendar is able to be viewed on our website at www.trinityinhoskins.com under the school heading. You can also put this link into the URL bar in order to access the calendar: <http://bit.ly/2bFggBX> Our hope is that this will make it easier for parents to access event information and dates as well as sending reminders about upcoming events. Please let Miss Smith know if you have any questions.

Hymn: #130 v 3

Hosanna, loud hosanna, The little children sang;
Through pillared court and temple The lovely anthem rang.
To Jesus, who had blessed them, Close folded to his breast,
The children sang their praises, The simplest and the best.

Lower Room News

I'm impressed with how far we've come with the "Granny Awards." I may be sending home the words to the parts the students are to memorize to make sure we are ready when we need to start putting it all together. There may also be some opportunities for your to help with costumes or props.

Second Grade Memory Treasures Tuesday-Thursday this week. We will also have spelling tests as normal on Wednesday and Thursday. We are working through our novel called "Tornado" in reading class. We have also been learning about Early America in Social Studies Class. We just finished our unit on Simple Machines in Science Class.

Kindergarten Memory Treasure on Wednesday. We will be acting out their SuperKids play, "The Glum Princess," this week. We will also start the letter J for Jesus!

Book Orders are due on Thursday.

Upper Room News

This week in Science we are continuing our look at the body systems. Last week we focused on the muscular and skeletal systems. Next up, the nervous system. In Christlight w have been inching closer to Good Friday and Easter.

Spelling and Penmanship are both Unit 30 for this week. Spelling tests will be on Tuesday and Thursday only, due to the principal conference on Friday.
